The Tottenham Seventh-day Adventist Church's Mission Statement
 Our vision: We aspire to be anointed, empowered to bring healing, hope and relief to the suffering through personal, corporate and collaborative intercession, to assist in creating a safe, loving, caring and nurturing environment for personal growth, spiritual development and holistic well-being.
 Our Mission: We give of our time, skills, resources and funds where necessary, to meet the needs of people in the community. We conduct a ministry of love, compassion, support, care, guidance, prayer, spiritual counselling, education and training. We are open to all people and on Saturdays, 9:30 am-12:00 pm for children, youth, family, spiritual study, fellowship and a meal. The church hall is available for hire.
 We are a faith based and active in working in the community. We provide a number of services in areas of health, relationships, wellbeing, underemployment careers and advice, HIV awareness programmes, counselling and guidance services.
