Tottenham Seventh-day Adventist church:
Striving to be a caring community of believers who care for one another and intentionally reach out to our neighbours, because people matter to God.

As we approach the end of another year and face the New! It is good stewardship to reflect on how we have been and to project where we are going. Please share with us your thoughts by completing the following statements:

One thing that our church is good at is...

One thing that we are not so good at is...

One concern that I have is...

A highlight at church in 2016 was...

One priority for the church in 2017 should be...

We are the church; what I do or don't do can affect our success; I would like to improve in: worship, witnessing, fellowshiping, tithing, offering, punctuality, attending or other...(Please underline accordingly)

Thank You
