The Tottenham Seventh-day Adventist Church's Mission Statement
Our vision: We aspire to be good neighbours by bringing healing, hope and joy to the community through personal, corporate and collaborative inter-personal, to assist in creating a safe, caring and mutually beneficial environment for all.
Our mission: We give of our time, skills, resources and funds where necessary, to meet the needs of people in the community. We conduct a weekly Bible discussion, Bible study, prayer, praise, singing, counselling, support and support. We run the local prayer and on Saturdays, 9.30 am - 11.00 am for children, youth, family, worship, study, fellowship and a meal. The church hall is available for hire.
We are a faith group and active in working in the community. We have a commitment to care in areas of health, relationships, wellbeing, underemployment careers and advice, HIV awareness programmes, counselling and guidance services.
